ACCIDENT/INCIDENT REPORTS

Accident/Incident Reports prepared by Robin Kemp were reviewed.

April – 4 Incidents – 1 being BWC Claim
1 Incident at Dept of Aging - involving senior
2 Incidents at Hillside
1 Incident at J&FS, being a BWC claim

JEANS DAY

- March 30, 2012 – Autism Awareness – Donated: $80.00
- June 29, 2012 – Hospice
- August 31, 2012 – Alzheimer Awareness
- November 2, 2012 – Toys for Tots

Candy has contacted Pam Shipley at Community Health who has advised that the funds for Hospice will be earmarked for Williams County. Pam will be emailing information to Candy to be used for the paycheck stuffers.

Candy has talked with Shannon Keiser concerning the Alzheimer's jeans day. Shannon cannot guarantee that any funds donated will stay in Williams County. A general discussion was held concerning whether to stay with Alzheimer's for the August jeans day or donate to a different cause. A question was asked whether the funds could be donated directly to Anna's House at Hillside. Candy will look into that. This will be further discussed at the June meeting.

HEALTH FAIR:

Date: November 1, 2012
Time: 7am – 9am

Prices: Blood Panel - $30.00; A1C - $10 (could go up to $13); PSA - $20.00 – Everything else is the same.

NEW IDEAS for the 2012 Health Fair?

Candy will contact the Vendors.

WELLNESS UPDATE:

Grant has been submitted and accepted once again for 2012.

Need to come up with ideas and incentives for the 2012 Health Challenge

A general discussion was held concerning incentives for the walking challenge to take place in June through the American Heart Association and a wellness challenge to coincide with the health fair. The walking challenge is a contest among counties and the winning county receives $1,000 for wellness promotion. A question was asked about whether any incentives would be taxable as fringe benefits. Robin will look into that.

TRAINING UPDATE:

Dennis Smith, Robin Kemp & Kim Herman

- Robin is working with Dawn Baldwin in regards to the trainings.
- Dawn has scheduled all of the tornado/severe weather trainings with the various departments and those are going well.

- Tornado Safety –
